PRESS RELEASE

Lady Jays Basketball Program Donates to Emory Valley Center

Jerry Williams, Director of Girl's Basketball with TN Lady Jays, and two team players, Se'Quari Stewart and Maggie Williams presented a check to Emory Valley Center President Jennifer Enderson for $2,000 in support of the organization's mission.

“We would not be where we are without the partnership we have with Emory Valley Center,” said Williams, “and we look forward to continuing our relationship for many years to come.” The TN Lady Jays Basketball is a youth program based out of Oak Ridge, focused on empowering young women by teaching them sportsmanship and how to work together as a team. They currently partner with Emory Valley Center, utilizing the gym in the Caldwell-Thompson building.

Many organizations and businesses use Emory Valley Center's meeting space and gym located in their Caldwell-Thompson building. For information on utilizing space in the Caldwell-Thompson building, please contact Kevin Hicks, Facilities Director, at kevin.hicks@evcmail.org.

Emory Valley Center is a local, independent 501(c)3 agency and has been supporting people with intellectual, developmental, and physical disabilities in our community for 64 years. The agency currently provides a comprehensive array of educational, vocational, residential, rehabilitation and senior services, programs and support monthly to over 1,400 children, adults and families in multiple east Tennessee counties.
